

Seminar on “Legal Aspects of Food Safety Management in Hong Kong”

(Organised by HKQAA, supported by HKLTI)

Successfully Held on 23 July 2018

With the Food Safety Ordinance (Cap.612) in full operation, the legal landscape regulating food safety management in Hong Kong is getting more demanding and complicated. Every stakeholder involved is now imposed with strict obligations in the food chain of operation from import to retail sales.

This training walks through the legal aspects in the food law impacting on food safety management systems and highlights the essentials of the Ordinance. It provides participants with a comprehensive overview of the necessary legal knowledge and practical skills in relation to the food safety control in Hong Kong.

The Seminar on Legal Aspects of Food Safety Management in Hong Kong was successfully held on 23 July 2018. Feedbacks are very positive. The visiting lecturer was Ms. Karen Wong, Barrister-at-law.
